From Our Pastor

This Sunday, in the Gospel reading, we have a story of two women, Martha and Mary. Both were close friends with and followers of Jesus. Together with their brother Lazarus, they hosted Jesus in their home on more than one occasion. In the Gospel, we hear about Martha who is busy worrying about making everything perfect for the visit of her special guest; and then we hear about Mary, who is just sitting with Jesus and enjoying His visit.

It's pretty easy to imagine how Martha may have felt - irritated, frustrated, resentful. Why should she be doing all the work? Wasn't it only right for Mary to be helping out? Martha felt so justified in her anger that she went and talked to Jesus about it. "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Therefore tell her to help me," she said to Him. But instead of backing her up in her demand, Jesus rebuked her saying: "Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things. But one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken away from her."

Jesus teaches us that it can become so easy for us to get wrapped up in all the things we think need to be done and the things that need to be accomplished that we lose sight of what the most important thing is. Isn't it possible that we can get too wrapped up in the cares of life? The highest priority in our lives needs to be choosing the good part, as Mary did - to learn of Jesus so that we can become like Him. Jesus should always come first in our lives.

Once again, I want to thank all of you for your warm welcome to St. Thomas of Villanova Parish. It has been almost a month since I arrived here. Perhaps like Martha, from the Gospel reading, I was also worrying about and was too preoccupied with so many things upon my arrival here. But very soon, I realized that people here are so nice and welcoming that my worries turned into joy. Thank you for stopping by, introducing yourself to me. Thank you for each card that I have received. And thank you for your prayers. Please bear with me as I still learn your names, your customs, traditions and also getting to know this quiet neighborhood.

May God bless us all!
Fr. Kris

EMERITUS RAY'S NEW AWESOME ADVENTURE

Now that we have a new Pastor, Shepherd, Leader of the Band, Orchestra Director, Team Captain, (CEO?), Pied Piper, etc. Fr. Kris, I have decided to take a two week "vacation" on the advice of my medical team.

- Destination: Amita Alexian Brothers Hospital, Elk Grove.
- Time of Departure: 5am, Tuesday, August 6 (Feast of Transfiguration)
- Purpose: Aggravated spinal column being narrowed, impinged by old neck fracture (C1, 2, 3) plus new aggravation in (4, 5, 6)
- Plan: 2-hour surgery to widen the spinal canal so that my ability to control hands, arms and legs (I don't want to spill my drinks - cocktail, diet coke, coffee, etc. and more importantly the most Precious Body and Blood of Christ)

I love celebrating Mass with the Body of Believers who come to worship, sing, pray and give thanks to God who gives Life, Love in the person of true Great High Priest, Jesus, God's unconditional gift to all who believe and need food for their journey down here on this planet called earth, our temporary home.

In the words of Bruce Springsteen, "I'm just lookin' for a map to lead me home." It's a trite saying but very true "Home is where the Heart is." My heart right now is with the person or persons I'm with at the moment. I try to be fully present to Jesus in the way He presents Himself in all His various disguises, like Surgeons, medical people, staff, aids, lovely people like all of you here and those who travelled with me – walking by Faith not always knowing what lies ahead. So, I have a plan for another adventure.

St. Thomas has a new leader, a servant leader showing us, in the best way he can, to follow in the footsteps of the Master. Fr. Kris might not wash your feet, but you never know? (Holy Thursday?) Whose "feet" are you going to wash today?

See you down the road fellow traveler,
Emeritus Ray

Just keep lookin' for the map to your home and feeding each other with lots of LOVE, TLC and Mercy – our God is Rich in all!

P.S. If all goes as planned after surgery, 2-3 days in Hospital, 2-3 weeks in Rehab Facility and return to my garden apartment in the Priests' Residence on Anderson Drive. According to Doc – should have better balance, control, etc. In the meantime, I'll be around to help out, celebrate Mass and minister the best I can.

PADS MONTHLY FOOD COORDINATORS NEEDED

Every Sunday, from October through April of each year, St. Thomas of Villanova partners with Christ Lutheran Church (CLC) to provide food and shelter to homeless guests at the CLC PADS site on Rohlwing Road. Many volunteers are needed to ensure everything runs smoothly. This season we have an opening for two monthly food coordinators for the 1st Sunday of each month. Food coordinators work in pairs as a team once a month and are responsible for being at the site to oversee the kitchen, make coffee, help serve the food brought in by others, and put away any leftover food at the end of the meal.

Many other volunteers are at the site during this time checking guests in so you are never on your own. You will work with your partner food coordinator and other serving volunteers. No cooking is required. Monthly food coordinators are also responsible for making reminder calls to the volunteers who have signed up to bring food that week. Our volunteers are warm, friendly, helpful people who would love to have you join them. Please consider donating your time one Sunday a month to help feed our homeless neighbors. Contact the Parish Office 847-358-6999 for more info.

MULTI-MEDIA RACK

Our Faith Formation Ministry has new material in the multi-media rack located in the Gathering Area. Please browse the large selection of CD's, booklets and books. For the next few weeks, we'll showcase some of the titles for you:

BOOK: Fatima for Today
- Fr. Andrew Apostoli C.F.R.

Though the apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima took place almost a 100 years ago, Our Lady's call to prayer and penance for the salvation of souls and peace in the world is as relevant now as when first delivered to three Portuguese peasant children in 1917. Because of the prophetic nature of Our Lady's messages, the story of Our Lady of Fatima has been the subject of much controversy and speculation. In his book, Fr. Andrew Apostoli, an acclaimed expert on Fatima, carefully analyzes the events and messages at Fatima and clears up lingering questions and doubts about their meaning. He also challenges the reader to hear anew the call of Our Lady to prayer and sacrifice, for the world is in need of generous hearts willing to make reparation for those in danger of losing their way to God.

CD: Catholic Teaching on Marriage and Annulments
- Bishop Joseph Perry

Are annulments just a Catholic version of divorce? Nothing could be further from the truth. The differences are profound, and much of the confusion springs from a misunderstanding about marriage itself. Bishop Perry explains the key principles of the Sacrament of Marriage and applies them to divorce and annulments. He answers the most commonly asked questions on this topic.

ON ENTERTAINING STRANGERS

There are various interpretations of Hebrews 13:2. Per my New American Bible for Catholics, it translates to "Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels." Nice. When it comes to this particular chapter and verse, however, I favor the King James Bible message: "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." I first came upon this passage in 1995 while taking a year-long calligraphy class. Our instructor gave us an assignment each month, and certain short quotes to utilize in putting to paper the particular skills he was teaching during the preceding weeks. I chose Hebrews 13:2. My work was non-impressive and to this day is stashed away in my portfolio that in turn is stashed away beneath my bed upstairs. The words, though, still speak to me.

And they especially speak to me today as I consider the first reading. Here, Abraham is sitting at his tent entrance on a hot day when he sees three men standing nearby. He says to the apparent leader, "Sir, if I may ask you this favor…Let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves…" When the strangers acknowledge him, Abraham asks his wife Sarah to bake rolls for the visitors. Then he directs a servant to prepare a choice steer, and Abraham gets some curds and milk and sets the entire feast before the visitors. As they enjoy it, they ask of Sarah's whereabouts. Abraham says she is in the tent. Then one of the three--again, apparently the leader--answers, saying, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah will then have a son." Hearing this prediction of a miraculous birth (as both he and Sarah are advanced in years), Abraham knows that the stranger is the Lord.

This puts a whole new spin on Hebrews 13:2, no? (as in, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained God unawares"). I've entertained a few strangers over the years, and I feel good about that. To my mind, the most memorable encounter happened years back. My wife and I were housecleaning--Godspell album cranked to max--when a couple of Jehovah Witnesses stopped by. We invited them in, served them lemonade and talked about the faith (in truth, I don't think they knew what hit them). Other times, though, I've been less hospitable. Those times, I've been more like the Levite or the priest in last week's Gospel. You know. The guys who crossed to the opposite side of the road when they saw a man in need. And in looking at today's Gospel, I'd have to say that more times than I'd like to admit, I've been Martha, not Mary. In my defense, I argue that somebody has to be Martha. In my defense, I argue that Martha is serving God in her own way. And yet I hear Jesus speaking to me just the same: "John, John, you are anxious and worried about many things…" Busted. But on my best days, though, I hope to keep entertaining angels unawares. Or maybe Jesus himself.

IN SERVICE TO OUR COUNTRY

Lord, bless the men and women of our military as they answer the call to serve our nation and defend our freedom. Protect and heal them-- body, soul, mind and spirit--especially those in harm's way. Most of all let them know your love; that you are with them, and that you will never forsake or abandon them. I ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

XVI NIEDZIELA ZWYKŁA – Ugościć Boga

Dom Marii i Marty jest miejscem, w którym Jezus zawsze odnajduje atmosferę sprzyjającą odpoczynkowi, i gościnność we wszystkich jej wymiarach. A jednocześnie pozwala obu siostrom doświadczać, jak ubogacające jest podejmowanie tego Gościa. Gościnność jest piękną cechą człowieka. Czy jednak zawsze ktoś przeze mnie goszczony odejdzie ubogacony? Wiele trudu wkładamy, by zadbać o potrzeby jego ciała. Jezus nie krytykuje gościnności Marty, lecz pokazuje, że człowiek to 'nie tylko żołądek do napełnienia'. Gościnność to przede wszystkim spotkanie i nawiązanie relacji. To dar czasu, by przyjąć kogoś ze wszystkimi radościami i problemami, które przynosi. Wysłuchać, doradzić, razem pomilczeć lub popłakać. A przede wszystkim w centrum postawić Chrystusa, w Nim wszystko odnaleźć. Czy moja gościnność jest znakiem wiary dzielonej z innymi?

Dlaczego lipiec jest miesiącem Przenajświętszej Krwi Chrystusa?

Istnieje pewien kult, szczególnie w Kościele katolickim, związany z męką Jezusa Chrystusa – to kult Jego Najświętszej Krwi.

To forma uczczenia ofiary Jezusa i tego, że On przelał swoją krew dla zbawienia ludzkości. Poza tym, Krew Jezusa jest obecna wśród nas dzięki Eucharystii i możemy ją przyjmować wraz z Ciałem Chrystusa w Komunii podczas mszy świętej, pod postacią chleba i wina.

W ciągu wieków Kościół powoływał wiele świąt na cześć Najświętszego Serca, jednak dopiero w XIX stuleciu ustalił jedno powszechne święto.

Podczas Pierwszej Wojny Włoskiej o Niepodległość, w 1849 roku, papież Pius IX przebywał na wygnaniu w Gaecie. Razem z nim był tam również Giovanni Merlini, trzeci superior generalny sercanów.

Jeszcze w czasie trwania zawieruchy wojennej Marlini zasugerował papieżowi Piusowi IX utworzenie uniwersalnego święta na cześć Najświętszej Krwi, by błagać o niebiańską pomoc Boga, która zakończy wojnę i przywróci pokój Rzymowi. Później, 30. czerwca 1849 roku, Pius IX złożył deklarację, że zamierza ustanowić święto na cześć Najświętszej Krwi. Wojna wkrótce się skończyła, a on sam w niedługim czasie wrócił do Rzymu. 10 sierpnia papież oficjalnie ogłosił, że pierwsza niedziela lipca będzie poświęcona Przenajświętszej Krwi Jezusa Chrystusa. W późniejszym czasie papież Pius X ogłosił dzień 1 lipca jako stałą datę tego święta.

Po Soborze Watykańskim II święto to zostało usunięte z kalendarza liturgicznego, jednak ustalono mszę wotywną ku czci Przenajświętszej Krwi i może być ona celebrowana w lipcu. Dlatego też cały miesiąc lipiec jest tradycyjnie poświęcony Przenajświętszej Krwi Chrystusa, a katolików zachęca się, by medytowali nad głębią ofiary Jezusa, który przelał swoją krew dla ludzkości.

Modlitwa na miesiąc lipiec akcentująca Najświętszą Krew Pańską:

'Boże, który przez Najświętszą Krew Twojego Jednorodzonego Syna odkupiłeś cały świat, zachowaj w nas działanie Twego miłosierdzia, byśmy czcząc nieustannie misterium naszego zbawienia, mogli zasłużyć na jego dobre owoce. Panie, przyjęci do Twojego świętego stołu, z radością czerpiemy wodę ze źródeł Zbawcy: prosimy Ciebie – niech Twoja krew sprawi, że wytryśnie w nas źródło wody na życie wieczne. Amen.'
